

ATHLETES FOR ACTION

Protect Women's Sports and Spaces.
Empower the Next Generation.

PROTECT • EMPOWER • ADVOCATE

WHAT

Fair competition and a stronger community.

Education, advocacy, and resources to protect meaningful opportunities for girls and women in sports.

WHO

Female athletes.

Parents. Coaches. And everyone in their corner.

WHY

Girls deserve the chance to compete, grow, and lead. We're here to help them advocate courageously.

TAKING ACTION IN COLORADO

Advocacy: Athletes for Action is supporting Protect Kids Colorado's effort to pass Proposition 134, a November 2026 ballot measure addressing male and female participation in school and collegiate sports.

Chapters: Help launch student-led high school chapters that connect female athletes, build leadership skills, and create a supportive community.

Curriculum: Equip athletes, parents, and school leaders with A4A's six-unit curriculum covering advocacy, Title IX, sex differences in sports, and the legal landscape affecting school athletics.

MEET OUR EVENT SPEAKERS

Paula Scanlan

A4A Co-Founder

A former Division I swimmer at the University of Pennsylvania and Senior Fellow at the American Principles Project, Paula is an advocate for fairness and privacy in women's sports. A 2022 computer science graduate, she speaks nationwide, encouraging young people to think critically, stand firm in their values, and lead with courage.

Megan Burke

A4A Co-Founder

A Colorado native with 15 Colorado 5A state titles, Megan is a two-time NCAA champion, American record holder, and former All-American track and cross-country athlete. She earned her journalism degree from the University of North Carolina. Now a mother of two girls, Megan champions Title IX and meaningful opportunities for female athletes.

Elizabeth Eddy Biggs

Guest Speaker

A former USC dual-sport athlete and professional NWSL soccer player, Elizabeth's career spans 11 years, three countries, and seven titles. Her international experience includes a U17 World Cup silver medal and a U20 CONCACAF championship. She brings a firsthand perspective on teamwork, perseverance, and the opportunities sports create for young women.

HELP OUR GIRLS THRIVE
